Thy Kingdom Come

As in previous years, from Ascension day (May 14th) until Pentecost (May 24th) we will be using the "Thy Kingdom Come" prayer resources to pray for five friends to become followers of Jesus.

The prayer resources, which are written by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sarah Mullally, are still available this Sunday. So if you haven't collected one yet, do pick up your copy in time for Ascension Day.

Christian Aid Week

Christian Aid week envelopes will be available this weekend. If you are able to donate, they can be returned and placed with the Sunday collection over the next few weeks. Prayer devotional booklets will also be available to encourage prayer for this year's campaign, which is highlighting the severe urban poverty suffered by the people of Nairobi, among other places, and providing tools and training to grow food to feed their families.
